ART INSTALLATION LEGEND

As numbered starting on page 15

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land we are staying on, the Njaki Njaki Noongar people. We acknowledge and respect their continuing culture and the contribution they make to the life of this region.

60,000 to 40,000 years ago the first people settled this country which became the home of the Njaki Njaki people. When European explorers rode through here 160 years ago it was the Njaki Njaki ancestors who welcomed them and showed them the waterholes at the base of the rocks. This is still Njaki Njaki country. Their stories are woven in the landscape, and it is their language that gave the names 'Jilakin' and 'Kulin' to the lake and the town.

Each year we gather at the Bush Race Track beside Jilakin Lake on land made available to us by the Lucchesi family who came here generations ago and we thank them for hosting us here.

We drive through Kulin, the community who support us, who built the roads and the facilities we see around us. We thank them for their welcome.

We watch the moon and sun rise up over these billion year old rocks beside the remnants of a river that flowed south past here 130 million years ago when Australia was joined to Antarctica. We acknowledge that this is old country that was here long before us and will be here long after us.

The Blazing Swan principle of Radical Inclusion says, "We welcome the stranger." This transformative idea is central to our Event and our community. We are reminded that in this Country we are the strangers who have been welcomed. When we welcome the stranger, we are passing on a gift that has been given us, and we are sharing a special place that has been shared with us.

The Welcome To Country Ceremony will be at 12pm on Friday.

AIDING AND A-BETTING

Welcome to our little camp. Aiding And A-betting are a boutique theme camp of funsters who love to mess with our visitors in the most delightful way. We provide fun, interactive, saucy games and shenanigans which encourage participants to step outside their comfort zones, push their boundaries and make new friends.

We concoct the perfect blend of consent, immediacy, and a sprinkle of kink to enhance your blaze experience. We welcome you with a consensual spanking and leave you with magical moments etched into your memory.

AKASHA

Run by an eclectic group of free spirits and wellness practitioners, AKASHA provides an inviting and supportive space for a variety of workshops with a focus on holistic well-being and creativity. We will hold workshops related to health, spirituality and arts, which allow Blazing Swan participants to explore different creative interests and healing modalities. AKASHA will be an alcohol-free space, a daytime camp with offerings and workshops from morning til afternoon.

BIBLIOPHILIA, WITH THE DRAWING ROOM

Bibliophilia is a place to find books and be gifted them, to read, to write, and to think. Not a place to have sex with books.

The Drawing Room is an ephemeral Publishing House at Jilakin Rock City. Pick up our dusty, per diem rag – The Daily Flapper, available for consumption with your morning coffee at Black Lagoon. In addition, you can craft something up for our Blazing almanac. We'll be publishing our collective works post-Blaze as a gift to all our contributors. Find us in Infinite Loop, with Bibliophilia.

BLACK LAGOON

Immerse yourself in the dark depths of the Black Lagoon for a dose of stimulation and rejuvenation. Resurrect your soul with freshly brewed coffee, refreshing cold brew, caffeinated cocktails or other delicious treats. Sink into the cosy confines of the Lagoon for cuddle puddles and conversations. #### CAMP S.H.I.T. G.I.F.T.

Your favourite broke bogans bringing you the classiest in 'n' Goon since 1969. With over 420 lives impacted by such classics as Spew Drew At You, Naked Cricket and the Nickelback Invasion Power Hour, we are back with a whole new shitshow for a whole new normal. No "church", corral or mud wrestling pit is safe.

CHAINSAW COBRA

Rattle rattle, clank clank, ripping it like a cobra king snake. Stretch ya vertebrae and whip ya fangs into some fleshy sound waves. Get ya bar oil and spit some two stroke.

COUCH POTATOES

We serve hot potatoes.

CHURCH OF BELLIGERENCE

You hoped to fill it with work, with purchases, with time off, with friends, religion, meds, fucking, mindfulness, exercise and healthy eating, liquor, drugs, sobriety, community, drinking 8 cups of water a day. You chose life, but what did it give you ? Still empty; that hole inside you.

When all your repulsive excuse for a brain has left to do is to scream in rage until your lungs hemorrhage at the horror and brutality that is existence; and the most empathetic way you have left for relating to another living being is a shared, and universal spite; to live only to be the spit in the eye of the universe - you will have joined The Church

2.0 ARTS

Welcome back Blazers! Or if this is your first-ever Burn event, then special special dusty warm hugs and welcome for all of us from the Arts team!

We are proud to present this year's Blazing Swan theme: POSEIDON'S FLAME. It has been carefully selected from our voting panel as a suggested theme throughout the event. Theme camps and artists have had a great response in applications and have stepped up to create their visionary works for all of us to enjoy.

Blazing Swan has created two main Art zones this year. The Sculpture Park (within the theme camp hub) and The Esplanade (or playa, connecting the Effigy and the Temple). This means you can easily walk the Arts trail without missing any of our artists' great installations.

We really hope you enjoy the Arts facet of the event; our aim is to inspire and encourage your great minds to explore what possibilities you might bring to next year's Blaze.

Big love from your Arts team.

Obi Mason and Russell Clark

TITTANUS

In the wasteland where strange things abound,
There's a mutant tricycle that astounds,
Titanus, the drunken and rusty beast.
Its wheels wobble as it rolls,
And its frame is rusty, covered in mysterious holes. Titanus keeps on trucking,
Its horns blaring and honking.
No one knows how it came to be,
Perhaps it was born in a freak accident,
Or maybe it's a product of a mad scientist's experiment.
The rust on its frame seems to move,
Like it's alive and has something to prove,
And the more Titanus rides through the land, The more peculiar it becomes, unplanned.
But in a world where weird is the norm,
Titanus fits right in, it's no harm, it's strange and quite bizarre, continued...

So if you ever see Titanus roll by,
With its horns blaring and rusted wheels high, Just wave and smile,
and let it pass,
For in the wasteland, anything can last.

FAQ: I have hairy nips, can I participate?

A: Yes we can oil up your nipples first before the cast.

However, if you are super keen and committed to the cause, you could shave a little of the area around one nipple to remove the hair, which does make the process easier and also results in a very cool look for you.

Our capacity is about 25 nipples per workshop time slot FYI. Don't let your nips miss out on this amazing chance to showcase their glory ☺

7.0 SATURDAY EFFIGY BURN

This year's effigy is called the Pillars of Poseidon.

Connected to the earth in its organic glory, it stands several feet tall, surrounded by swans keeping watch from atop the lookout pillars. This effigy was built with the sole purpose of looking good and going ablaze great in its all-engulfing flames.

The burning of this piece is about renewal, a fresh start and the opening of new doors and next chapters. If this does not ignite your will to party through Saturday's momentous burn, we don't know what will!

Our effigy build team has partnered with the infamous pyro crew to bring this ignition to the next threshold of flamboyance. As the god of the seas fights the roaring flames, enjoy as contradictions intertwine and we welcome a new era of spectacular.

- Angus Priest

9.0 SUNDAY TEMPLE BURN

Φ

This year's temple design draws inspiration from the ancient Greek concept of Phi, the Fibonacci sequence and the golden ratio. This mathematical sequencing is revealed within an extraordinary number of living things around us that we can see when looking closely. It represents a perfect balance or harmony, a wholeness in the existence of all things – even impacting the ocean tides!

The temple entrance is wide and tall, welcoming the visitor with a calm openness. Visual and audible cues of an old jetty are present. Sit and ponder, or wander towards the inner temple. The walkway narrows, the structure quiets, the space compresses, enhancing and accentuating the sacredness of the place. Inside the temple proper, the walls are solid, the floor is soft, and the pond of tears calls forth tears of any emotion that one might feel compelled to release.

Tears deposited in the pond, waiting to evaporate in the burn, being released back into the fabric of our environment, honouring our evolving awareness.

Write a note or message, tie it to the string, adding your piece to the growing soft white ephemeral sacredness of the space. The light floating ceiling capturing the occupant's thoughts and messages in a weaving of collective consciousnesses. Your contribution adds to the growing and evolving energy of the place over the five days.

Watch as they are transformed through the fire into floating, dancing symbols of release.

A special mention goes out to the incredibly selfless Temple crew that made this all possible.

$$X_{n+2} = X_{n+1} + X_n$$

Big Love!

Clinton Matthews
